

Blackwell,
Smith Given
YC Honor

Miss Martha Sue Blackwell and Robert Smith, Tyler Junior College sophomores, were awarded Rotary's Young Citizen award.

This award is presented each year by the Rotary Club to 14 boys and girls in Smith County, including Tyler Junior College. The award is for membership in the "Young Citizens Club."

The boy and girl winners of this award are determined by members of the school faculty. After they are chosen, they receive the award in a special assembly.

Mrs. Francis Flaherty, registrar, presented the award to Miss Blackwell and Smith. Mrs. Flaherty presented the award in the capacity of acting dean since Dean M. Potter is in Medical Center hospital.

Awards were based on meritorious conduct on these points: cleanliness, thriftiness, courtesy, honesty, service, dependability, sportsmanship, scholarship and leadership.

"It is a great honor and one that I shall always appreciate and be proud of," said Miss Blackwell, in acknowledgment of the award. Miss Blackwell is a graduate of Tyler High School. She is a member of the Phi Theta Kappa, a member of the Student Council, secretary of the Sophomore class, and the Sophomore Homecoming Queen.

Miss Blackwell plans to go to Baylor University when she completes her work at TJC. Robert Smith is a graduate of Henderson High School.

He is president of the sophomore class, drives a bus from Bright City, and is a member of the Future Teachers of America.

After graduating from TJC, Smith plans to go to Huntsville, where he will complete his 4-H work in agriculture.

TJC Summer Sessions
To Begin June 4, July 16

TJC will offer two 1952 summer sessions; the first will begin June 4. These two six weeks sessions are scheduled:

Registration	Date	Sem.	Hrs.

Students attending other colleges which do not dismiss their spring terms by June 4 will be permitted to enroll late and will be given necessary personal assistance.

Since twelve or more students are needed to establish a class, subjects to be offered are not definite. A definite schedule of subjects, based upon the required enrollment, will be made on registration day.

Students may enroll for one or two subjects in each of the two

Tuesday, May 27.—all 1:33 classes—8:30-11:30.

All examinations will be held in the regular classrooms.

If a student is ill and cannot take one of his examinations, he should call the registrar's office. The registrar will then notify the instructor of that particular class. The course will be designated as incomplete on the student's record until he can take the examination.

TJC's dead week will begin next Wednesday, May 14. During this period, no student activities or tests are scheduled, so students will have ample time to spend studying for final examinations.

Selective Service Test
To Be Given May 22

TJC students who missed the two previous Selective Service College Qualification Tests will be given an additional opportunity May 22 to make it up.

Applications for the test may be obtained by students from the nearest local board and should be mailed as soon as possible to the Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey. They can not be postmarked later than midnight May 10, to be accepted.

Officers at National Headquarters said they could not emphasize too strongly that students who have an admission ticket for either the December 13 or April 24 test and failed to use it on the assignment date, must submit a new application if they wish to take the May 22 test. They must make application for and receive a new admission ticket to be eligible for the May 22 test.

To be eligible to take the selective test, one

(1) must be a selective service registrant who intends to request deferment as a student;

(2) must be satisfactorily pursuing a full-time college course—undergraduate or graduate—leading to a degree;

(3) must not previously have taken the test.

The criteria for consideration for deferment as a student at the present time is either a score of 70 or better on the Selective Service College Qualification Test, or a class standing among the male members in the upper half of the freshman class, or the upper two-thirds of the sophomore class.

These criteria are guides for the local board. The local boards are under no compulsion to follow them, but any local board classification is subject to appeal. The appeal must be filed in writing with the local board within 10 days after the local board mails a notice of classification.

General Hershey said all eligible students should take the test so they will have scores in their files when the local boards reopen their cases to determine whether they meet the criteria for deferment as students during the next academic year.

No deferment is an exemption, General Hershey said. "A deferment is a delay or postponement," he said, "and in no way cancels the duty of the registrant to meet his obligations."

Morgan Wins First
In Essay Contest

William J. Morgan was awarded first place and a prize of $35 in the Swanson Essay Contest held at T. J. C. Mr. Morgan's essay was "The Great White Plague."

Miss Mary Ann Kidd was awarded second place and a prize of $25 with her composition entitled "The Jungle of American Politics."

Third place winner was Mrs. Lola Dykes, who won $17.50 for her essay, "It Can Be Done."

Fourth place and a prize of $12.50 went to Miss Doris Wilson for her essay "The Cover Charge."

Fifth place of $10 was taken by George Murad for his essay, "The Skeleton in Texas' Closet."

Miss Elizabeth Bryarly, Dean of Women, and Mrs. S. T. Jones, instructor of government and economics, comprised the committee in charge of the contest.

Miss Bryarly stated that the dividing of the $100 prize money and the choice winners was decided by a secret committee suggested by Dr. H. E. Jenkins, TJC President.

Student Records
Must Be Cleared

Richard Barrett, head of the business administration office, requests that all students who do not have clear records with his office come by and get their records straight before the end of school.

All matters concerning scholarships and tuition should be attended to at once. Mr. Barrett pointed out. The business office records cannot be completed until the individual records are straight.

If the student's record is not cleared in the business office, his transcript can not be sent to another college until the student pays the amount owed.

Groucho Marx once told a contestant from a travel agency: "I met my wife at a travel bureau. She was looking for a vacation and I was the last resort."

President's Message

April 25, 1952

CLOSING THE COLLEGE YEAR

It seems a very short while since the college year of 1951-52 began. Time always passes swiftly when we are busy.

May I express to the faculty and students my appreciation for the splendid manner in which you have conducted the college year.

To the seniors who will be graduating may I also express our appreciation and give my very best wishes for your continued success. We expect you always to consider yourselves as members of the "Apache Tribe."

Likewise, we look forward to the beginning of the college year of 1952-53 next September, and to those students who are not completing their work may I say that the college faculty will be indeed glad to assist you as you make your plans for next year.

I wish you all the best of success in the remaining few weeks of the college year, in the summer which follows, and the future.

Sincerely,

H. E. Jenkins, President

Dreams Ruled Out.

It is getting close to the end of school and all of us have a tendency to relax.

It is easy for us to daydream. Baseball, fishing, swimming, and many other outdoor recreations which are typical of spring could easily take our time.

But let's leave them until later. Even through the end of the school year is so close, this is the busiest of all times. Examinations are just two weeks away. Much can be done now toward that important three-hour period.

Our daydreams will come closer to evolving into reality if we make every hour count now.

Memories To Last

Junior college days are drawing to a close for many. With the completion of these days, a feeling of ending—and yet beginning—is felt; it seems a closing of old customs and a beginning of new ones.

Old friends, activities, and habits will be replaced by new and enriching ones. The times of yesterday will be lost—except in memory. But these memories will be built upon, just as old friends will become closer and new friends will become many.

Fields of interest will broaden; new faces and places will become a part of each individual life; yet there will always be a memory where the mark of TJC has stamped a permanent record.

Do You Speak?

Is it because Tyler Junior College students are just plain snooty or are they really tongue-tied?

If you will walk down the hall and speak to six different people, only about two of them will speak, and the chances are that none of them will crack a smile.

It's a proved fact that it takes more muscles to frown than to smile, but sometimes around the TJC reservation it looks as if this is the "work-ingest" bunch of Indians in the country. Maybe that's the trouble. Somewhere down the line people found that Indians were practically unemotional. But being unemotional does not mean not speaking.

It would add a lot of pretty scenery around the campus if TJC students would add a smile to their greeting mumble as they pass on the campus or in the halls.

Wouldn't it be great to be able to have this said about our college:

"Everyone here speaks, and most of the girls put on a big smile. You know, sometimes when you don't have anything to do, it is just downright encouraging to walk across the campus and absorb those smiles."

Let's go for a stroll on the TJC campus. What do you say?

TJC is well represented in the City Church League of baseball. Among some of the participating students are Jimmy Hayes, Joe Krysa, Johnny Linney, Billy Andrews, John Carter, Joe Moore, Jerry Coker, John Saleh, Robert Davidson, Donny Waller, Jeffrey Kamel, and Ralph Murad.

Loyce Brown was entered as TJC's singles in the woman's tennis division at the recent meet with Henderson County Junior College.

Jeffrey Kamel is back in school after a vacation which resulted from the mumps.

Apache Belles entertained and helped register the hundreds of people who took part in Tyler's Back-Scratch Day.

A crowd of blue jean clad TJCs recently journeyed to Tyler State Park on an all-school hayride. Picnic lunches, dancing, music, and fun for all awaited the gang at the park.

A copy of the 1931 Pow Wow carries a picture of that year's winner of the Rotary's young citizenship award, Edward M. Potter, who is now dean of the school.

Voters, 250 strong, cast their ballots for Student Council officers. A large sheet of paper on which each voter placed his name was sent as a get-well message to Dean Potter, who is still in the hospital.

Colored films on the Rose Bowl game featuring the Apache-Pasadena football game, the half-time activities, and the pre-game parade were shown at the Tyler Theater. Black and Gold were colorfully seen as the team played and the Apache Belles performed.

Mrs. Georgia Jones, TJC instructor, participated recently in a panel discussion on the civil status of women under the laws of Texas. Four lawyers who were formerly TJC students, Jack Flock, Willis Jarrel, Ben Johnson, and Robert Boulter also took part on the program.

Ann Rowden, Janet Harvey, Ann Collins, Gwenda Mullins, Shirley McBride, Rachel Janeway, and Betty Kirkpatrick were among the girls seen modeling for Belk's Department Store's Monday night attraction.

Since the approach of spring, many students have anxiously awaited the opening of the swimming pools. Many TJCs are seen on the week ends enjoying the full comforts of a long swim.

Job Guides Received

By HUNTER SCHMIDT

Approximately 200 Career Research Monographs were received recently by the TJC library containing information on almost any occupation a college student can study.

The pamphlet dealing with a career in business administration is an excellent example with which to illustrate how the pamphlets take a person from "soup to nuts" in his chosen occupation.

Running a business requires two different types of executives: the administrator or policy maker, and the manager type who is responsible for putting the policies into practice.

In the highly developed state in which business exists today it is becoming more and more necessary that both types secure special training for their careers. Just as a person interested in law or medicine would study the profession of his choice in college so the business executive should have studied business administration in college.

However, unlike those entering law or medicine who often leave formal training and a limited internship to enter fully upon the practice of their professions at once, the prospective business executive is likely to begin in one of the lower brackets in production sales, finance, or accounting, and he does not become a full-fledged business executive except by gaining experience over a much longer period of time on the job and working up to the position.

REASONS GIVEN

Two reasons make the business executive's climb to the top harder: (1) business administration is probably far more complex than the practice of a profession; (2) a professional man may hang out his shingle and if he lacks ability and cannot obtain clients there is no great loss of capital, while if the prospective young business executive could begin as a full-fledged administrator and should lack ability and fail there usually would be great loss of capital—probably the capital of others.

The pamphlets go into the history of business administration and the first sight of the need for the special training needed by the executives.

Seventy years ago a common expression, "a man never learns how to be a successful businessman until he has failed two or three times," was a known fact throughout the country. However becoming a successful businessman through a series of bankruptcies was a costly procedure to all concerned.

General Robert E. Lee, head of Washington and Lee University, is said to have voiced the need for business education in 1869, several years before John D. Rockefeller organized America's first million dollar corporation.

EXPLAINS DUTIES

This informative pamphlet tells the complete history of business administration and explains the duties of a typical administrator. It carries the student through the qualifications, the chances for advancement, and completely outlines the types of executive a student may become by proper study and experience.

Useful information as to the good schools that offer courses in business administration and an example of the courses offered by just one school is in the pamphlet.

Not only the attractive features of the job are pointed out but also the unattractive features are studied and explained thoroughly to the reader. When a person takes a job he usually wants to know how much he's going to be paid. A section of the pamphlet tells what may be expected in the amount a business executive receives and also tells some valuable facts about securing a position.

The book points out that not only men may be business executives, but the chances for women as executives are very good. However, it points out, that while opportunities have increased decidedly since the turn of the century, they are still limited in comparison with those of the men.

These books cover almost any job a college student might wish to choose, Mrs. Kennedy, librarian, said, and they are available for any student to use in the library.

Memories Of To Follow Seniors

With the coming of spring, comes the graduation, which in turn writes a chapter of memories.

Departing seniors have many things to remember about TJC. Along with many personal memories go the thoughts of group attainments in field of athletics, music, drama, and school.

First place at the national basketball tournament and two All-Americans, O'Neal Weaver and Moshier, were headliners in the field of sports. The Rose Bowl welcomed this year's squad to vie for national honors.

Athletes from many towns as well as from other states have come to TJC to take part in the known and active sports program.

SCHOOL OF MUSIC

Numerous students have entered TJC for music under the direction of Mr. Joseph Baum, Mr. Arthur Shoep, and Mr. Oscar Mr. Kirshbaum is an outstanding director. Mr. Shoep, an inspiring soloist, Ziegler, an accomplished pianist. These and well-known instructors who have abroad also take and active part in civic and programs.

The drama students recently added "first" to their record of three first places in the state one-act play contest. Mullins and Shirley McBride were present actress and supporting actress awards.

Dwight Ewing served as president of the Theta Kappa convention in Independence, last year. Twenty-six scholars, the largest number in many years, was accepted by the this year.

NURSING DIVISION

The Nursing School, which is designed to prepare the student for advancement in professional nursing, was granted a fifty year charter. Fourteen members have entered local hospital to begin their clinical experience this year.

During the last two years, the famous Belles have been featured at the Rose Bowl in California, the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans, the Cotton Bowl in Dallas. Their many appearances include football games, parades, and social functions.

College Grads Get More Money

Do the words "double the average salary" anything to you? If so, then it would pay to spend some time in college.

A recent editorial in Time states that the graduate is more successful in life after his birthday than is the non-college man.

"If you are debating whether or not to go to college," the article stated, "you may take a look at the 'portrait of the O.G.' from a job-and-salary standpoint. Just about out of six male graduates hold down top jobs in their communities—in the professions, owners, managers or executives. Median income of the male graduates at the time of the survey was $4689 a year, more than double that of the men in the U. S. Our college graduates earn money almost from the first year on the job. The average man makes at the peak of his power," the article says. "In the popular large, the peak period comes in a man's late 30's and early 40's. . . . Our graduates get wealthier as they get older, while the average man begins to decline after 45. Among our graduates the oldest group, the 50-and-overs are losing fast to younger men."

The article also points out that the male graduate is more likely to get married than the non-college man and is more likely to start a family.

The article also shows that in general, particularly the men, demonstrate a remarkable tendency to move away from their old communities and states. Of all graduates, 44% had moved to new states.

An article on how some of these statistics apply to the women graduates will be published in the near future.

Dr. Wiley Jenkins, professor of history, and Mrs. Georgie Jones, professor of government, were two of the six Tyler citizens invited by the League of Women Voters to participate in the recent forum which presented a view of current national problems.

7 Buses Bring Students Here

Approximately one-third of Tyler Junior College academic students ride the buses.

These students come from Wood County, Van Zandt County, Smith County, Rusk County, Cherokee County, Upshur County, and Anderson County.

There are seven buses, one GMC station wagon and one Plymouth station wagon. These buses are driven by students who are attending TJC.

The drivers and their starting points are Albert Smith, Wright City; Johnny Mooney, Winona; Doyle Reed, Canton; Tony England, Palestine; Mac Mullino, Winnsboro; Bobby Harris, Mt. Selman; James Eitel, Big Sandy; Stanley Musick, Rusk; and Billy Westmoreland, Grand Saline.

Billy Westmoreland is the driver of the bus which makes the longest run. Mac Mullino is the driver of the bus that brings in the greater number of students.

According to Dr. W. W. Jenkins, Director of Buses, the only change in the bus runs is the addition of a station wagon which goes to Palestine and is driven by Tony England.

VOTING TROUBLES—At a mock precinct convention skit given by TJC students, Thursday, May 1, students demonstrate what might happen at the voting polls when political party members try to influence voters. Skit members are (l to r) Judy Foman, Iva Ruth La Follette, Bobby Kennedy, Allen Hines, Damon Walton, Marty Mitchell, Charles Stratton, Robert Dickey, and James Mullenax.

The League of Women Voters sponsored this convention.

Jenkins To Be In Charge Of Curriculum Committee

Again TJC steps into the appointment of Dr. H. E. Jenkins, president, to the Committee on Curriculum of the American Association of Junior Colleges.

Dr. Jenkins was recently appointed to act as chairman of this committee, replacing Dr. Ralph R. Fields, Teachers College, Columbia University, New York.

Among Dr. Jenkins' duties as head of the Committee will be the arranging of the program for the Curriculum discussions at the national meeting to be held in Boston, June 23-27. Topics to be covered in the discussions will include nursing education, general education, vocational-technical and fine arts programs.

Dr. Jenkins has all these programs in operation here. TJC has recently added a student nurses program with Mildred DuBovey, R.N., Oklahoma State University Hospital, as supervisor.

Eight members compose the faculty in the Texas Eastern School of Music. They are John W. Carson, theory, voice; Edwin Fowler, band, reeds; Gertrude Kirshbaum, harp; Joseph Kirshbaum, theory, strings; Hilda Ohlin, voice; Jesse Deane Trulove, piano; J. F. Witte, band; and Oscar Ziegler, piano.

Irving L. Friedman is head of the vocational school.

Other members of the committee are Dr. G. O. Kildow, North Idaho JC, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho; Dr. H. T. Tyler, Modesto JC, Modesto, Cal.; B. Lamar Johnson, Stephens College, Columbia, Mo.; and W. Dwyer, Westbrook JC, Portland, Maine.

'Behind Scene' Business Workers Always Busy

Behind the scene workers are always the busiest, so it is in the case of the financial business office workers who do not come in direct contact with the students, but, who, nevertheless, render a special service to them.

The financial office, located next to the registrar's office, is the school bookkeeping, purchasing, and student account headquarters. It is under the supervision of R. H. Barrett who received his Masters degree from A&M and formerly taught accounting at TJC. He is assisted by Miss Janell Spear and Mrs. Jimmie Woolery.

All TJC supplies are ordered through this office and all tuition are paid here.

Posting, adding, and check protector machines, check books, and bookkeeping ledgers are the department's standard equipment.

The business office is open all day on school days from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. and a half a day on Saturdays.

Student Nurses Will Get Caps At Ceremony

The twelve student professional nurses of the Texas Eastern School of Nursing will receive their caps Sunday, May 11, 2:30 p.m. at the Marvin Methodist Chapel.

The student nurses are Miss Zoe Ann Albert, Miss Annie Lou Cason, Miss Peggy Cates, Miss Romola Ellis, Miss Frances Hammon, Miss Shirley Pat Morgan, Mrs. June Murphy, Mrs. Sybil Orman, Miss Helen Ray, Mrs. Inez Sullivan, Mrs. Beatrice Thomas, and Miss Della Thomas.

Miss Ruth Binder, director of the professional nurses, will present the caps to the nurses. Mrs. Vennie McLean will lead the nurses in the Nightingale Pledge after they have received their caps.

The cap will be made of white organdy with three narrow cuts on the front and will be fastened in the back with one button.

Rev. Walter Kerr will be guest speaker.

"Students, faculty members, and the public are invited to attend," stated Miss Binder.

TJC Band Will Honor Seniors Of HS Bands

Graduating seniors of the high school bands in the neighboring communities will be honored by a party May 9, 7:30 p.m., at the Teepee, by the AJC Apache Band.

The facilities of the Teepee will provide the entertainment. Games will include ping-pong, dominoes, and cards. Refreshments will also be served during the party.

The head of the refreshment and entertainment committee is Miss Glenda Givens. Others members of the committee are Phil Point, Roy Carnes, Jerry Doggett, and Miss Jo Ann Laney.

According to Mr. Edwin Fowler, band director, this party will give him a chance to estimate the approximate number of students who will join the band next year.

Miss McBride took high honors in the dramatic monologue division.

McMillon won top honors for his oration, an original speech "Which Way America." Miss Collins took runner-up honors for her oration, "What Manner of Man are You."

Linney took third place in the poetry division for his reading of Benet's "Nightmare for Future Reference."

Mann won third place in extemporaneous speaking.

Other TJC students participating were Norma Markey, Beth Ellis, Coy Stevens, and James Puckett in debate; Tommy Malone and Gwenda Mullins in radio skits; Sue Martin in the poetry division; and Alice Raviere in extemporaneous speaking.

Band Members Win Awards For Work

Roy Carnes, Charles Langford, and Phil Point, members of the Apache Band, were awarded medals by Edwin Fowler, band director.

The medals were given in appreciation of the work these three have done in the past year of school.

Roy was presented a medal for being the most conscientious member of the band.

Charles and Phil tied for the honor of being the most faithful and loyal band member. The band was so evenly divided with regard to the honor to be conferred, that members voted to present a medal to both students.

FIRST PLACES—TJC gained three first places in the April 26 track meet at Kilgore to capture second place in the meet with 37 points. (l to r) Curtis Blakely won the mile run with time 5:17.7, Kenneth Holland won the tennis single crown, and James Sitton became top man in the 880-yard run.

Sports Scripts

By LLOYD GILES

John McMillon, who made Phi Theta Kappa this year, is the only football player ever to achieve this honor.

McMillon insists that he is not a master mind, that he had to work hard, just as everyone else does who makes the honor fraternity.

"Next to sports, dancing is my next love," McMillon stated. It's rumored that he can Charleston, waltz, jitter-bug, do the Dallas mix-master, and even do the complicated two step.

STILL POPULAR

Golf is still holding its own at TJC, with the classes doing some playing at Bellwood Golf Course.

Ralph Morgan, pro at the Country Club, has been furnishing clubs, balls, and all necessary equipment for those who play.

Old man weather has been furnishing the classes with ideal golf playing.

SPRING TRAINING

Spring training has finally got under way at TJC and the round ball players have been pounding the hardwoods since Monday afternoon.

Summer heat is really making the sweat flow as the Apaches are being put through their paces by Coach Floyd Wagstaff.

Some new boys that are trying out for the team have been looking pretty good, as well as the regular squad members.

The workouts are consisting of drills, such as crisp shooting, passing, and dribbling, with a scrimmage ending each day's session.

Immediately following this spring basketball training, the football squad will take the field for one week. The completion of spring training will ring the curtain down on another great athletic season at TJC.

LETTER JACKETS RECEIVED

Letter jackets for members of the basketball team have arrived and the boys seem to be very proud of them. It is too hot to get much wear out of them now but the boys claim they will be new for next year.

TEAM CAPTAINS

Glenn Pearson and Smith Markham were elected basketball captains for the 1951-52 season by a vote of the team. Both boys are graduating this year, but have not decided where they will attend school this fall.

Kiwanis Club Honors TJC Basketball Team

The TJC Apaches, co-champions of the Big Six Conference, were honored along with Coach Floyd Wagstaff at a dinner given by the Kiwanis Club recently.

Wagstaff, in an after-dinner speech had nothing but praise for TJC's 1951-1952 representative in hoop sport.

Basketball boys present were Burl Plunkett, Jack Mosher, Glenn Pearson, Clyde Carlisle, Smith Markman, J. W. Stucky, Wilson Richardson, Lloyd Giles, Merle Gorman, James Sitton, Gene McKibben and Billy Wayne Andrews.
